

NEW YORK TIMES
10 January 1985

Marine Gets 12 Years At Spy Court-Martial

CHARLOTTE, N.C., Jan. 9 (AP) — A marine accused of trying to sell nuclear, biological and chemical warfare information to Soviet and East European spies was convicted at a court-martial last year and is serving a prison term, the Federal Bureau of Investigation announced Tuesday.

Robert E. Cordrey, a 23-year-old private, was convicted Aug. 13 of 18 counts of failing to report contacts with citizens of Communist nations, and was sentenced to 12 years at hard labor, Robert Pence, an F.B.I. agent, said.

The case was not disclosed before Tuesday because it was part of an "extremely sensitive investigation," Mr. Pence said.